

MOHAMMED AMER AL-BARQI

Riyadh

0503023013 | malbarqi@psmmc.med.sa

Objective

I work in the field of information technology and IT infrastructure And telemedicine work It broadcasts and holds many operations Educational and academic courses And Videoconferencing system

Education

- Arab Open University
Bachelor's degree in Information Technology and Computing
- College of Technology in Buraidah
Intermediate University Certificate / Industrial Electronics and Automated Control

Skills

- Work to manage one team in any system and work environment.
- English language skills in communication and writing.
- The skill of planning in the workflow and scheduling work according to the tasks assigned to me.
- The skill of managing manpower and human resources and creating a healthy work environment.
- Computer skills, such as designing office programs and video presentations for meetings.
- Specialized skills in information security and data preservation for the system.
- Information Technology
- Technical support
- Operating systems
- System troubleshooting
- Communication skills

Courses

- Microsoft MCSA International Certificate for Server Systems
- Organizational organization and its impact on employee productivity.
- Introduction to Sigma 6
- Strategy in human resource management and measuring organizational and functional performance
- Information technology skills for administrators.
- A course in advanced English language level 1 on the European scale. B 7
- A course in English, English, level 1, on the European scale. a
- Governance systems.
- Certified trainer in communicative medicine systems and units.
- Fundamentals of Computer Networks.

- Self-crafting and creativity at work
- Excellence in providing health services course